The Amazing Flores Family

Zulema Flores always brought out the best in children. Not only with her own three, but the children she worked with at preschool where she was employed. When she was laid off at the preschool, after years of employment, due to cutbacks, it was the perfect time for her to become a foster parent. A few months later, on June 4, 2010, Jose G. came to live with Zulema and her family.

Zulema's family consists of her adult daughter Carmin and son Jacob, husband Jorge and mother Carmen (all of whom are part of the inter-generational foster team). "What sets the Flores family apart from other foster homes" remarked Karen Cash, Director of Ettie Lee's Foster Family/Adoption Agency "is their willingness to work with older children." "We are willing to take older kids because it really gives us a chance to make a difference in their lives," said Carmin, "but we do insist upon their respect of us and our property."
